THE SUN FOR 1881.

Everybody reads The Sun. In the editions of this newspaper throughout the year to come everybody will find:

I. All the world's news, so presented that the reader will get the greatest amount of information with the least unprofitable expenditure of time and eyesight. The Sun long ago discovered the golden mean between redundant fulness and unsatisfactory brevity.

II. Much of that sort of news which depends less upon its recognized importance than upon its interest to mankind. From morning to morning The Sun prints a continued story of morning The Sun prints a continued story of the lives of men and women, and of their deeds, plans, loves, hates, and troubles. This story is more varied and more interesting than any romance that was ever devised.

III. Good writing in every column, and freshness, originality, accuracy, and decorum in the treatment of every subject.

IV. Honest comment. 'The Sun's habit is to speak out fearlessly about men and things.

V. Equal candor in dealing with each political.

V. Equal candor in dealing with each political party, and equal readiness to commend what is praiseworthy or to rebuke what is blamable in Democrats or Republican.

VI. Absolute independance of partisan organizations, but unwavoring loyalty to true Democratic principles. The Sun believes that the Government which the Constitution gives us is a rood one to keep. Its notion of duty is to resist to its utmost power the efforts of men in the Republican party to set up snother is to resist to its utmost power the efforts of men in the Republican party to sat up snother form of government in place of that which exists. The year 1881 and the years immediately following will probably decide this supremely important contest. The Sun believes that the victory will be with the people as against the Rines for monopoly, the Rings for plunder, and the Rines for imperial power.

A DISCOVERY BY ACCIDENT, which supplies a want men of coninent ability have devoted years of study and experiment to find—a specific for diseases of the Kidneys, Bladder, Urinary Organs and Nervous System—and from the time of its discovery has rapidly increased in favor, gaining the approval and confidence of medical men and those who have used it; it has become a favorite with all classes and wherever introduced has superseded all other treatments. In short, such is its intrinsic merit and superiority, that it is now the only recognized reliable remedy.

DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS are the most prevalent, dangerous and fatal affections that afflict mankind, and so varied and insidious in their character, that persons often suffer for a long time before knowing what alls them. The most characteristic symptoms are gradual wasting away of the whole body; pain in the back, side or loins; a weak, feeble, exhausted feeling; loss of appetite and dread of exercise; scanty and painful discharge of variously colored urine; inability to retain or expel the u ine; minute shreds or casts in the urine; and, when the disease is of long duration, there is much emaciation and general nervous prostration.

THE ONLY CURE.

We say positively, and without fear of contradiction, that DAY'S KIDNEY PAD is the first and only infallible cure for every form of Kidney disease. It is the best remedy yet discovered for this complaint, and more effectual in its operation than any other treatment. By using faithfully and persistently no case will be found so inveterate as not to yield to its powerful remedial virtues.

IS STRONGLY ENDORSED.

We have the most unequivocal testimony to its curative powers from many persons of high character, intelligence and responsibility. Our book, "How a Life was Saved," giving the history of this new discovery, and a large record of most remarkable cures, sent free. Write for it.

DAY'S KIDNEY PADS are sold by druggists, or will be sent by mail (free of postage) on receipt of their price: Regular, $2.00; Special, for obstinate cases of long standing, $3.00; Children's, $1.50. Address, DAY KIDNEY PAD CO., TOLEDO, 6.

CAUTION. Dev Pads now seeking a sale on our reputation, we deem it due the afflicted to warm them. Ask for DAY'S KIDNEY PAD, take no other, and you will not be deceived.

Missouri Republican.

A JOURNAL FOR THE PROPLE.

In inviting again the attention, and claiming the support, of the intelligent people of the West and Southwest, the publishers of the Missouri Republican recognize the spirit and demand of the present era—an era marked by deepening intensity of thought, research, inquiry, and expectation—an era of marvelous intellectual activity and schievement, and, in our favored country, at least, of amazin our favored country, at least, of amas-ing material development and prosperity; and they promise to keep those great marks of the times in constant view in their efforts to make the Republican at once a faithful mirror and and effective once a faithful mirror and and effective agent of the interesting civilization in which we are living. As usual, politics will receive a due share of attention, and the course of public events, and the attitude of parties, both in this country and abroad, will be watched with diligent interest; and while it will continue to be an advocate of the guiding principles of Democracy, the co-equality of the States, the rights of local self-government, the largest liberty of citizens and communities compatible with public order and the general weal, and the limitation of the national authority to those fiends where it general weal, and the limitation of the national authority to those flends where it can be most benignly exerted for the common advantage of all the States and the whole people—the Republican will not by a mere partisan journal; it will endeavoe to treat the Republican National Administration with the utmost fairness, giving due credit for its wise measures and acts, and reserving criticism and opposition and reserving criticism and opposition only for its sectional and unwise policies. Recognizing the just claims and interests of the Great West, the Republican will aim to be a vigilant defender of these claims and interests—demanding from Congress liberal approlations for the improvement of our rivers, favoring railroad building building, organized efforts for immigration, manufacturing, trade, improvement in farming methods and outfits—and, in one word giving a cordial co-operation in all enterprises that promise to expedite the inevitable advancement of the Mississippi valley to the ascendan-cy population, wealth, intelligence and
